DESIGN

We believe that the design phase is the most important part of the exterior or interior projects, as this is where we begin to truly understand our clients' vision. We take pride in bringing their ideas to life by designing a beautiful yard of the highest quality with superb technical functionality. We follow authorities' standards, community's rules & regulations and obtain NOCs to avoid complications during the execution phase.

Do you need sanctuary in your home?

WELLNESS

To truly enhance the well-being of a spa, building design needs to move beyond the optimization of single parameters such as temperature, humidity, and correct airflow. First of all, designed interventions must approach different functions:

- Wellness (sauna, Turkish bath, massage room, hot tubs, etc.)
- Fitness (gym)
- Accessory Features (dressing room, WC)

We specialize in creating the most stunning premier wellness facilities. With our vast knowledge of designing and constructing luxury wellness features, we ensure the user experiences ultimate relaxation.

Beat with heat

SWIMMING POOL

Getting home from the office on a summer afternoon and racing to the pool is just the best thing for swimmers. Imagine adding another dimension to your home, creating a space where you and your family can relax, have fun, keep fit and entertain. Designing and installing a swimming pool requires a specialist design to address the building structure and management of the environment (considering shape, size, depth, tank, etc.) and specific techniques (such as filtration, the circulation system – pumps, inlets, and outlets, pipework, etc.)

Be it indoor or outdoor, a swimming pool from Yardman does just that. What distinguishes our pools is that they are unique products, designed and made to measure for each customer. Each of our swimming pools is made and sculpted on-site to make it a work of art in the garden.

Flowing water soothes the soul

WATER FEATURE

The motion and sound of water are hypnotic and soothing. Pondless stone-column bubblers, waterfalls, streams, and fountains can be simple or dramatic. Having a water feature in the garden and watching the sun go down is the perfect way to spend your evenings.

Contact Yardman Landscaping & Pools LLC for more information about designing and installing a water feature for your Dubai home.
